

MENUHIN COMPETITION

AUSTIN, TX  2014

VOLUNTEER TO BE A HOST FAMILY

WHAT & WHEN

The Menuhin International Violin Competition is coming to the U.S. for the first time...and to Austin! Previous competitions were hosted by Beijing (2012), Oslo (2010), and Cardiff (2008). From February 21 - March 2, 2014, the world's most talented young violinists will gather for a 10-day competition and festival with many events free to the public.

The 42 competitors are selected from hundreds of international applicants. Since the competition began in 1983, many winners have gone on to major international careers.

HOST FAMILY OPPORTUNITY

The Butler School of Music is seeking families to host the young competitors (plus their guardian or instructor) in their homes, provide breakfast and dinner, transportation and share the beautiful city of Austin with our international guests.

TOKEN OF APPRECIATION

As a token of our appreciation, we will provide each host family with access to all rounds of the competition, 2 complimentary tickets to the Senior Final Concert and the chance to win tickets to see the Cleveland Orchestra perform at the Long Center! We hope that you will open your home and share your time with one of these outstanding artists.
